

THE INDIAN PAINT ASSOCIATION

A PROFILE

The Indian Paint Association (IPA), affiliated to the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) is a national body which represents both the organized and the Small Sector of the paints and coatings industry. It is a voluntary non-political and non-profit organization which promotes the interests of the paint industry and society. IPA was founded by amalgamating the former two associations, Indian Paint Manufacturers Association and Paint Federation, on 1st July, 1960. IPA is registered under the Societies Registration Act, XXI of 1860.

The Association strives for the following:

- (a) To promote, maintain and advance interests of manufacturers of paints and other allied products.
- (b) To provide a forum for exchange of ideas, views, information and recommendation on any problems faced by manufacturers of paints and allied products in India for all-round development.
- (c) To encourage work studies, research activities with the aim of improving the manufacture of paints.
- (d) To advance technical know-how used in the manufacture of paints and to disseminate knowledge and information to the members.
- (e) Generally to do all other things and activities which go towards achieving these objectives.
